

Checklist for Counterargument:

- ❑ What the author wants the reader(s) to do or think is clear.
- ❑ There are logical reasons given to support each argument.
- ❑ There are statements that show the author has anticipated arguments and answered problems the reader may have.
- ❑ The argument is believable—it is written in a sincere and honest way.
- ❑ The author has stayed on target.

Checklist for Counterargument:

- ❑ What the author wants the reader(s) to do or think is clear.
- ❑ There are logical reasons given to support each argument.
- ❑ There are statements that show the author has anticipated arguments and answered problems the reader may have.
- ❑ The argument is believable—it is written in a sincere and honest way.
- ❑ The author has stayed on target.